measures under sec 4 of the Excise Regn. being held in abeyance are referred to. (Vide last two paragraphs). But when the same question was taken up for consideration and orders passed on the 20th May 1913, the points referred to in the order of Oct'r 1912 have been disposed of. It is not clear why the Excise Commr considers that there is a necessity to amend the section 15 of the Regn. and to renew the adoption of ~~coe~~ coercive measures when especially the rule applicable to toddy licenses and the certificate in D.S. 4 form have been suitably amended. So both the objects noted by the Excise Commr have been gained when the order of 20th May 1913 was issued and there is nothing to prevent the adoption of coercive measures, especially when the sale notice is published as required by sec 4 of the Regn.
